		from the Wii's file system!	then uninstall it with wadmanager v1.3.
ret=-1029	WAD file	Error appears for users that have downgraded from 3.4 or 3.3. and have CIOS 37 installed.	Uninstall cIOS 37 and install cIOS 36 rev7. Afterwards everything should work.
ret=-1035	WAD file	This error occurs for people trying to install or use a CIOS on a 3.3v1 or v2 firmware on the Wii! Nintendo patched all of your IOS's and removed the trucha bug!	Solution is to follow this guide!: http://gbatemp.net/index.php?showtopic=112945
ret=-2011	WAD file	1) With 3.3v1 or v2 update installed Nintendo's patched all the IOS's The Wii won't install any WAD files anymore... Trucha signing bug has been disabled! 2) The WAD file you are trying to install... Region does not fit your Wii!	1) Solution is to follow this guide!: http://gbatemp.net/index.php?showtopic=112945 2) You can try to patch the region with freethewads! Or the Hombrew app: Channel Loader v1.0
ret=-4100	WAD file	Non Tech. Explanation: Someone who made the WAD file made a mistake and the WAD file has something wrong with it! Technical Explanation: The SHA- 1 hashes given in the TITLE.TMD may be wrong according to the *.APP files bundled with it.	1) If you created the WAD file, you should check the TITLE.TMD regarding the hashes (as mentioned). For this, use a He-x Editor such as "xvi32". For more information see following: http://wiibrew.org/wiki/TMD_file_structure 2) If it's your own WAD, there might be some *.APP files missing, resulting in the same error as the 1 st description. 3) If it's a downloaded WAD file search for a different source.
ret=-4100	DvD backup	Can't/Could not read disc	An issue with your burning method. You could try following: 1) Do not use no-name brand DVD manufacturer

V1.5 [Added Error: 116 Also Added New Disclaimer!!!] Fixed some info!

			2) Avoid using any RW (rewritable) discs (including DVD-RAM) 3) If using DVD+R media, you have to set the book-type to DVD-ROM! 4) When using a decrypted (some call it patched) Image do not use special characters in the image's name (EX: CMD: backup-creator.exe x:\folder1\this_game.iso) 5) Your Image might be a bad dump, although this is unlikely. 6) Also Try burning media at different speeds and try different media brand! 7) Update your cIOS!
